

Smut Night at the Press Dinner

Pat,

"Surprise Surprise" as Gomer Pile would say. But unfortunately for us true Constitutional Americans, we are not surprised. This indeed is the face of the New Democrat party. A party that once was the patriarch of the working class, has now turn to the lowest of the lowest to be their base. They do this using LBJ's War on Poverty as their tool to buy votes. We now have a large percentage of our society that as a result of the War on Poverty programs, have become professional poor people. My surprise is that they have not yet unionized. Somewhere in the definition of being Esteemed as the people that laughed at disgusting garbage spewed from that evening's podium
