

Brownshirts & Republican Wimps

Pat,

Brownshirts indeed! To see them in action against Trump, who can't be bought, is typical of their behavior. They are indeed a Mirror of the Brownshirts of the 30s in Germany and to follow them would lead us to the same closure, a war. I would not be surprised if the Brownshirts were behind the recent attempt to destroy the Wounded Warrior Project (WWP), the best anti-war commercial on television. It is so predictable of these Brownshirts. The WWP un-sanitizes war and works against them. To support this point, one only needs to be reminded that in every instance, when the Brownshirts have been presented with the choice of negotiations or war, their choice is not to talk but to show force. To the simple minded American people, showing force is simply choosing the possibility of war over the probability of peace. Thus, a big reason for the rise of Trump, the talker to everyone. I fear that if Trump, continues to win, we can expect these Brownshirts to do more than disrupt Trump rallies.
