

10/09/2015

Reply to Buchanan's "War Party Targets Putin and Assad"

To hear Mr. McCain speak, Assad is more evil than evil itself and must be destroyed. But wait, when and where did Assad become our enemy. Was it his attack on our fleet in the Mediterranean? No, that didn't happen. Maybe it was the destruction of our embassy in Damascus? No wait, that didn't happen either. It must be something, otherwise we would not be supporting Syrian opposition forces that want to overthrow him and risk a war with Russia. One could understand Putin, Assad's ally, he should be supporting him. He has Russian Sea Bases in Syria to protect. Us well... Don't know. Wait could it be that Assad hates Israel, and has a standing army? Hold On! Mr. Watson, we may be on to something. Hell didn't Saddam Hussein hate Israel and also had a standing army and we destroyed him. Oh wait again, how about Omar Khadafy, did he not have a standing army, hated Israel, and we destroyed him. Wait again and again, What of Iran? Let not their faith be undecided., it appears John McCain first needs to abolish the treaty that the 6 nations signed with Iran, then since they also have a standing Army, hate Israel, and according to John's owner's dictated plan, they too must be destroyed. Mr. Watson, there seems to be some kind of pattern to Professor Moriarty's, read McCain's, mad behavior. Yes Sherlock, there certainly does. Don't know about anyone else but I don't think there are reasons here that warrant us risking a war with Russia. Maybe instead we should re-think our relationship with Israel, they still should be our friends but they must find their own way, to solve their own problems, and not have their problems be our problems.