

Israel First or America First by Pat Buchanan 12/30/2016

Pray Tell! And how is Trump going to get us out of the Middle East? With guns blazing at every Arab state? Have we not done that in Iraq and Libya and tried in Syria? It don't work. And Say What about ridding our influence on congressional decisions by lobbyist and special interest? Did Trump lie to me? To me, Israel is a friend. However they are no different than any other friendly nation that we do business with. How about Americans putting America First. I am a second generation American of Italian Descent, my uncle, a first generation of Americans of Italian decent, fought the Italian Army in WWII in Tunisia and all of North Africa and onto Sicily and all of Italy until the Italian Army surrendered. My family's allegiant was to America. This was true of every American of Italian Descent that I knew then, and know now. We never had a polygamist relationship with any other country. We loved America and always put "America First" How about the Donald, where do you really stand? Facing you there is a door open to peace in the Middle East via a two State Solution. A solution that your predecessor, the world, the King of Jordan, and the American people want. A solution without blazing guns. Tweet your heart out, as you may now. But when you walk into the Oval Office as the President of these United States of America, do the job you promised to do.
