The ABC's of losing an election

A. The American People want: The not so perfect but preferable to war deal, with Iran

B. The Republicans are making big time mistakes by their stance on the Iranian deal.

1. Ted Cruz pledged to “rip to shreds this catastrophic Iranian nuclear deal
2. Marco Rubio would undo, in whatever way possible, the deal.
3. Chris Christie will keep state sanctions against Iran in place.

And the Worse?

4. Carly Fiorina will make two phone calls, the first to my good friend to Bibi Netanyahu to reassure him we will stand with the state of Israel. The second, to the supreme leader, to tell him that unless and until he opens every military and every nuclear facility to real anytime, anywhere inspections by our people, not his, we, the United States of America, will make it as difficult as possible and move money around the global financial system.

C. the Democrats are Capitalizing, they lie, but it worked in 1964, so let's do it Again.

Hillary On GOP Rivals Promising To Tear Up Iran Deal: 'That's Not Leadership'

Does not the Republican leadership remember the 1964 Daisy Attack Ad against Barry Goldwater that handed the election to a very unlikable (similar to Hillary) Lyndon B. Johnson? Just a reminder, the ad started out with a little girl picking and counting daisies then went into a nuclear missile launch count down thus painting Barry Goldwater as an, out of control, war hawk.
