

In Response to: Trump Must Break Judicial Power 2/10/2017

Pat

Trump should stop Tweeting negatives, then start writing more positive Executive Orders, then start Tweeting the rationale behind the Executive orders. The American people are not stupid, they get that the difficulty in draining the swamp, is that there are a lot of snakes in it and like Trump's poem, they bite. He needs to stop his childish behavior when someone disagrees with him. He ain't running in an election to be the President, He is the President and his dissenters are not. If he can't act Presidential, than someone has to give him a keyless keyboard to play with.
