Is Hillary Morally Unfit to Be President?

Pat,

Hillary is absolutely unfit to be President and FBI Director Comey stated every reason She should be indicted. But he, thank God, recommended not to indict Her, and he did it brilliantly. All one has to do is play out the scenario if she did get indicted to see that Bernie Sanders, the giveaway King would, most likely become the President of the United States. By leaving Hillary in the race and by Comey, in his narrative giving Donald Trump all the talking points he needs to run against Hillary and the American people all the reasons not to vote for Hillary, she most likely will not win the election and Donald Trump most likely will be the next President of the United States. Thank you Director Comey.
