

Rand Paul 09/17/2015

You would do yourself a great service if you vote no on rejecting the Iran treaty. By voting with the Republicans you will be part of the problem not the solution. The American people will not tolerate a war with Iran or for that matter any country in the Middle East. We know Iran hates us but it is because we are the friend of their enemy. Most Arabs hate us for the same reason. Just re-read the 9/11 hijackers suicide letter, if you can locate a copy. Thanks to the dumbing down of the American voter and the manipulation of polling data it appears that the American people support rejecting the Iranian deal. But has anyone polled using these questions, "what do you prefer. 1. Supporting a non-perfect treaty with Iran? or 2. Going to war with Iran? That's a question that is black and white and even the dumbest of the dumb will answer to the positive on number 1. You got it semi right last night when you vowed to talk to our adversaries. Follow that up by supporting the Iran deal. And if you get elected make sure your first telephone call will be to the American people, not some foreign country. And if your colleagues vote to suppress the Iranian deal and we do go to war, tell them to keep the hell out of our war torn victim's wards in our VA hospitals. They will not be welcomed.